

Faith Awareness Training - 29 January 2008

Places available for members of Sheffield faith groups

Would you like to know more about the different faiths in our region?

Are you seeking to build stronger understanding, respect and co-operation among people of different faith backgrounds?

Is your organisation aware of the issues and implications of laws on diversity and discrimination that apply to Religion or Belief?

Sheffield Faiths Forum in partnership with the Churches Regional Commission is offering this faith awareness training opportunity for faith groups in the city.

The half day seminar covers:

Faith and the Region	Introduction
	Where Am I Now? Participants' own experience of multi-faith situations
	The Understanding Faiths Guide
	Knowing Your Faiths – basic information on the major faith traditions
Faith and the Law	Discrimination and the Law
	Good Practice
	Action! How will participants use today's training?
	Questions and Feedback

Each participant will receive a copy of the new 'Understanding Faiths – a practical guide to working with faith communities'.

Date: Tuesday 29 January 2008

Time: 1.00 - 4.30 p.m. (registration from 12.30 p.m.)
